FLOWERS, FASHION AND FRENCH FLAIR

This summer, we celebrate Chelsea in Bloom's "Flowers in Fashion" theme by joining forces with French fabric house, Manuel Canovas.

The term 'fashion' originates from the Latin word 'Facere' which means to make. While staying true to our Parisian roots, we have decided to place a spotlight on the pivotal role textile design plays in fashion and celebrating one of Paris' much-loved designers. The Manuel Canovas team has dressed our terrace in a vibrant floral pattern and richly patterned weaves, bringing a touch of Parisian art de vivre to Sloane Square.

Behind the bar, our talented team has been busy concocting a limited edit of floral-infused cocktails in collaboration with Pommery Champagne. Santé!
